

Terem Crossover Music Week

Musical experience like no other!

July 22-31, 2016

Imatra, FINLAND

APPLICANTS WELCOME

Pioneers of crossover music, founders of the world's first crossover music competition, the St. Petersburg's 'calling card', world-famous Terem Quartet welcomes applicants to the Terem Crossover Music Week -an intensive instrumental and vocal music course to be held on July 22-31, 2016 in Imatra, Finland.

Terem Crossover Music Week is a 9-day educational program designed for young musicians aged 15 to 21. Summarizing the quartet's 30-years international stage experience, it reveals secrets of mastery and gives an opportunity for musicians of different traditions, instruments and backgrounds to come together for a full immersion into the exciting process of music-making.

The program of the TCMW, designed exclusively for the course, allows instrumentalists and vocalists of any skill level to experience a totally new dimension of musical freedom. It encourages everyone, regardless of his/her usual profile, to try their hand at various styles, e.g. classical, jazz, pop, and traditional music, working in ensembles with fellow musicians from other countries, under the guidance of eminent mentors known worldwide as masters of combining styles and genres in their creative work.

A unique curriculum created by members of Terem Quartet and friends of the band – top class musicians and professional instructors – is set up of instrumental and vocal ensemble classes, rhythm & improvisation workshops, additional and rare disciplines like calligraphy and art therapy, and more. Offering everyday concert opportunities, it's designed not only to help improve performance skills, but to expand inner horizons and broaden young musicians' minds. The faculty's personal approach to every individual and skillful leading of the whole creative process will turn it into pure joy and fun, removing any fears and uncertainties one might initially have! In addition, a friendly and non-competitive atmosphere, mixed with inspiration, encouragement and support, will help everyone fully discover their creative potential, making the 9-day TCMW a truly unforgettable event!

Terem Crossover Music Week will be held on July 22-31, 2016 at Imatra SPA-resort, located at the beautiful lake Saimaa in Eastern Finland. Tuition fee includes all classes, as well as accomodation, full board meal service, SPA and multiple facilities for leisure and outdoor activities.

Join us for this exciting musical adventure!

LEARN MORE AND APPLY AT WWW.TEREMMUSICWEEK.COM